WHERE COULD YOUR QUESTIONS TAKE YOU?

Interested in finding out?

YOU ARE INVITED TO JOIN A GLAD YOU ASKED GROUP RUNNING NEAR YOU!

Glad You Asked will be held at Aboyne Community Centre

Our scheduled starting date for the ten weekly sessions is Friday 8th February at 7pm.

Anyone who would like to participate and/or invite a friend or family-member please contact Lindsay Watt 013398 83621

Glad You Asked is a place to ask spiritual questions, discuss what you believe, and come to your own conclusions about some of life's most important issues.

GLADYOUASKED
a place to explore spiritual questions

GLAD YOU ASKED is a new course that explores some very basic and challenging questions that might arise in any company, such as: -

- Does God matter?
- Does God exist?
- How can God allow pain?
- Do the differences in religions matter?
- Can the Bible be trusted?
- Why is religion full of hypocrites?

We aim to provide a safe place for you to ask questions, discuss what you believe, and come to your own conclusions about some of life's most important questions.

The course is designed for people who either have no present church connection or those who consider themselves to be young in their faith or who want to revisit the basics of what Christians believe and why they do so.

Glad You Asked consists of ten weekly sessions, each of about six sections introduced by a short video of 2-4 minutes, featuring a vox-pop or a very short talk by an expert on the subject in question. There is then an opportunity for the group members to discuss the topic before proceeding to the next section.

We will meet in the Upstairs Meeting Room of Aboyne Community Centre on Friday evenings starting 8th February at 7pm.
